

Eight Join Faculty at El Camino

Eight full-time instructors have been added to the faculty of the Business Education Division of El Camino College for the coming year, according to R. Cline Durfey, dean of the division.

Two new instructors are graduates of El Camino. Tom Okada of Gardena received his A.A. degree from ECC, then went on to earn his B.A. from the University of Southern California. Ronald C. Pass of Inglewood also received his A.A. degree from El Camino, then transferred to the University of Colorado where he earned the B.S. and L.L.B. degrees.

Okada, who is also a CPA, will teach accounting. Pass, who formerly practiced law in Ft. Morgan, Colo., will teach business law. Both are former parttime instructors at the college.

TEACHING FOR THE first time at El Camino is Mrs. Bertha Craft, who was a substitute instructor at San Jose State College last year and has formerly taught at Owens Valley and Lone Pine high schools. Mrs. Craft, who will teach secretarial science this fall, received her B.A. degree from Georgia State College for Women and her M.A. from the University of Southern California.

Francis W. DeFea, who presently lives in Long Beach, will also instruct classes in secretarial science. DeFea earned his B.S. from Dickinson State College and his M.S. from the University of North Dakota. He taught last year at Cerritos College.

Hideo David Tanaka will teach accounting this fall and comes to El Camino from the faculty of Barstow High School. He received his B.A. from UCLA and his M.A. from San Jose State College.

ALSO IN THE field of accounting is Lester Shaw, who has taught previously at Stites High School, Stites, Idaho. Shaw received his B.A. degree from Eastern Washington State College.

Frederick M. Weeden, who will instruct classes in business law, did graduate study at the University of Washington last year, and received his L.L.B. degree this past June. He received his B.S.
